

FIS Migrates Hosted Core Banking Platform Service for Bank of the West

March 21, 2019

Key facts

- Move to hosted core banking platform provides bank additional flexibility for serving customers and supporting growth.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 21, 2019-- FIS™ (NYSE: FIS), a global leader in financial services and payment technology, today announced that Bank of the West, an $80-plus billion bank with locations in 24 states across the United States, has moved to a hosted FIS core banking platform.

Moving to an FIS' hosted environment will provide Bank of the West the ability to help meet the future needs of its customers, with the stability and recoverability of a secure cloud-based environment.

"As the banking environment continues to grow more competitive, the tools and services that meet the changing needs of our customers are critical," said Jacob Sorensen, Executive Vice President and Chief Information Officer, Bank of the West.

"We are pleased to support Bank of the West on its growth journey with this powerful core banking solution," said Bruce Lowthers, chief operating officer, Integrated Financial Services Banking, FIS. "By choosing a hosted platform, the bank will gain the capabilities and the flexibility it needs to continue providing its customers with the leading-edge, personalized services they have come to expect, and create a pathway for the adoption of innovative new technologies."
