JACKSONVILLE, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 1, 2019-- FIS™ (NYSE: FIS), a global leader in financial services technology, is now accepting submissions for the 2020 FIS Impact Awards. The awards program, now in its fourth year, recognizes FIS clients for their innovative use of FIS technology to enhance customer experiences and/or drive tangible business results.

The 2020 program will be open to FIS clients in North America, the United Kingdom, Germany and France. Entries are independently judged by leading industry analyst research group Celent. The deadline for submissions is end of day on Tuesday, Nov. 12.

For winning entries, FIS will make a $10,000 donation to a charitable organization chosen by the winner from the FIS Foundation. To date, FIS has donated nearly $300,000 to charities on behalf of Impact Award winners.

"Nothing excites us more at FIS than to see the innovative ways that our clients around the world are using our technology solutions to better serve their customers and achieve their business goals," said Gary Norcross, FIS chairman, president and CEO. "The Impact Awards program allows us to showcase those innovative projects while giving back to the communities where our clients live and work. We look forward to seeing how FIS solutions are bringing our clients' ideas to life in this year's program."

Clients can submit their entries in the following categories: Banking, Payments, Sell Side, Buy Side, Insurance, Wealth and Retirement, and Corporate. Awards will be presented at FIS client conferences in 2020.
