JACKSONVILLE, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Nov. 22, 2021-- Financial technology leader FIS® (NYSE: FIS) today announced that it has earned the number one spot in the Chartis RiskTech100® for the seventh straight year. Compiled by leading research and analysis firm Chartis Research, the Chartis RiskTech100® is an annual ranking of the world's top 100 providers of risk and compliance technology.

In addition to being ranked as the top provider, FIS won in the categories of Functionality, Market Presence, Insurance, Trading & Capital Markets, and Front Office Risk Management.

"Managing risk is a critical concern for businesses of all types and sizes and can be challenging for organizations to navigate," said Martin Boyd, President, Fintech Solutions at FIS. "Maintaining the top spot on this prestigious ranking for seven straight years is a tremendous achievement and recognition of the many talented colleagues we have at FIS who keep us at the forefront of risk best practice. In addition, it underscores the fact that our clients are continuing to benefit from the significant investments FIS is making to help them more easily manage risk across all areas of their business."

"FIS continues to stand out among risk and compliance providers in the Chartis RiskTech100®, said Sid Dash, Research Director at Chartis Research. "After winning the award seven years in a row, FIS has demonstrated the strength and consistency that its technology solutions are capable of."

FIS was also recognized by Chartis recently as a category leader for its energy trading and risk management solutions, and ranked number one for its risk modeling technology in the Chartis STORM50.
