As one of only 100 companies named to Fast Company's list, FIS was recognized for demonstrating its commitment to encouraging innovation at all levels, including its culture of innovation, InnovateIN48 innovation competitions, and FIS Impact Ventures venture investment program.

Fast Company's annual Best Workplaces for Innovators represents workplaces of all sizes that share a passion for giving employees the freedom to explore creative ideas that benefit businesses and their communities. Nearly 1,500 companies from various industries were evaluated to determine the final ranking.

"We are thrilled to be named once again to Fast Company's top innovators list along with this small group of businesses," said Stephanie Ferris, President of FIS. This recognition is a credit to the clients who innovate their businesses using our solutions, as well as our incredibly dedicated employees as we continue to attract, grow and retain the best talent. Additionally, this accolade speaks to our ability to disrupt innovation through our incubator and accelerator programs that allow us to bring bold, new ideas to market."
