- FIS also claimed the No. 1 position in the Chartis BuySide Platforms 2024 Ranking.
- The accolades reflect FIS' history of delivering innovative, end-to-end solutions that can address the evolving needs of the capital markets industry.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 3, 2025-- FIS® (NYSE: FIS), a global leader in financial technology, has been recognized by Chartis Research as an industry leader in several vendor evaluation reports for its robust suite of end-to-end trading and asset services solutions. This recognition further demonstrates FIS' comprehensive capabilities to help serving the world's capital markets and underscores its position as the leading technology provider for the world's money at work.

FIS claimed the No. 1 position in the Chartis BuySide Platforms 2024 ranking. Additional achievements in the report include:

- Award Winner in Functionality: Front-to-Back/Cross-Asset (Chartis Category)
- Award Winner in Investment Lifecycle: Overall (Industries Category)
- Award Winner in Investment Lifecycle: Private Equity (Industries Category)
- Award Winner in Buy-Side Client Reporting (Solutions Category)

As part of Chartis' 2024 Buyside Platforms report, the BuySide Platforms Ranking seeks to recognize the technology and services that are shaping the trends of tomorrow's buy-side ecosystem, such as the growing consolidation of classical asset management, the diversification of asset classes, the broadening of business' structural support and the continued move into private markets.

Chartis Research also recognized FIS for its industry leadership in other reports, including:

- Category Leader – Chartis KYC Solutions and Data Solutions 2024 report: Recognized for technological innovation and strategic leadership in the evolving know-your-customer (KYC) landscape
- Category Leader – Chartis Credit Portfolio Management Solutions 2024 Quadrant Update: Honored for its role in shaping future technology trends and advancements in credit portfolio management

"These prestigious recognitions validate our commitment to technology innovation in the world's money lifecycle, while positioning our clients for success in today's dynamic market environment," said Andres Choussy, head of Trading and Asset Services, at FIS. "FIS' recognition as a leader across multiple categories reflects the depth and breadth of our capabilities in trading and asset services that help build an invincible foundation from front to back to optimize a financial ecosystem. We will continue investing in technology that empowers our clients and makes money work more seamlessly across the money lifecycle."

Chartis Research is a globally recognized provider of market analysis and insights on risk technology. Its reports benchmark industry leaders, identifying providers that deliver essential tools and advanced solutions to drive asset management, risk assessment, and operational efficiency.
