JACKSONVILLE, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 15, 2025-- FIS® (NYSE: FIS), a global leader in financial technology, today announced it has been positioned as a Leader in the Datos Insights Matrix for Integrated Receivables providers, which businesses use to achieve more streamlined credit, collections, disputes and payment processing by automating invoice matching and reconciliation.

The Matrix, which analyzed the top integrated receivables providers serving U.S. banks and their commercial clients, recognized FIS for its exceptional performance across both vendor capability and vendor performance dimensions and ranked FIS higher than all other organizations evaluated in the industry assessment.

"We're solving a fundamental challenge that costs businesses time, money and accuracy," said JP James, head of Treasury and Risk at FIS. "FIS' integrated receivables platform transforms disjointed workflows into streamlined, automated processes that can free up valuable resources. We're proud of this recognition that highlights the power of FIS Integrated Receivables to give businesses the visibility into and control over their money in motion."

Built over two decades of continuous development, FIS Integrated Receivables has evolved into a comprehensive order-to-cash system that aggregates, validates and normalizes payment data from multiple channels into a single, intelligent platform. The solution delivers automated three-way matching across all payment formats, seamless ERP integration and the advanced automation that modern businesses demand – while maintaining the flexibility to adapt to specific client needs.

"FIS demonstrates exceptional depth and breadth in their integrated receivables offering," said Benjamin Nestor, advisor at Datos Insights. "Its ability to integrate with existing enterprise systems while delivering advanced automation capabilities sets it apart in the market. FIS has built a platform that not only meets the complex needs of today's financial institutions but also provides the scalability and innovation required for future growth."

This recognition reinforces FIS' market leadership, following the company's positioning as a Leader in the IDC MarketScape: Worldwide Accounts Receivable Automation Applications for the Enterprise 2024 Vendor Assessment.
