JACKSONVILLE, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 7, 2026-- FIS® (NYSE: FIS), a global leader in financial technology, today announced it ranked first in the 2026 IDC FinTech Rankings Top 100. The elite list features the technology companies from around the globe that are focused on providing solutions to the financial services and FinTech industries.

The Fortune 500-style ranking categorizes and evaluates the top global providers of financial technology based on calendar year revenues from financial institutions for hardware, software and/or services. These providers supply the technological backbone of the financial services industry, an industry in which IDC forecasts worldwide spending on IT across the globe to be over $1.1 trillion (USD) by 2029.

The recognition marks a significant milestone for FIS and reflects the breadth of technology it delivers to banks and financial institutions of all sizes seeking to modernize and compete across the money lifecycle.

Beyond revenue scale, FIS's No. 1 position highlights the value of connecting banking, payments, and capital markets capabilities to help financial institutions move with greater confidence, speed, and resilience. As the industry modernizes, trusted infrastructure and connected data are becoming essential to how institutions run, grow, and protect their businesses.

"IDC would like to congratulate FIS for its #1 position in the 2026 IDC FinTech Rankings Top 100," said Jerry Silva, Program Vice President. "FIS has ranked first in the IDC FinTech Rankings seven times in the past decade and has consistently remained among the industry's leading technology providers. This year's ranking underscores the company's continued ability to deliver innovation, scale and value to financial institutions around the world."

"This ranking reflects the trust financial institutions place in FIS to power the bank-grade infrastructure behind the global financial system," said Stephanie Ferris, President and CEO of FIS. "In today's rapidly evolving environment, banks need a trusted partner that can help them operate more efficiently, protect against growing threats, and grow with greater confidence. By connecting core banking, payments, and capital markets across the money lifecycle, FIS gives clients the scale, perspective, and insight to make faster decisions and better serve their customers. As financial services enters its next phase of modernization, we are positioned to help lead that shift toward more connected, resilient, and data-driven models while preserving the trust the industry depends on."
