

Information Related to the Acquisition of Metavante Technologies, Inc.

Q: When was the acquisition completed?

A: The acquisition of Metavante (“Metavante”) by Fidelity National Information Services (“FIS”) was completed October 1, 2009.

Q: What will I receive as a result of the acquisition?

A: If you are a Metavante stockholder you will receive 1.35 shares of FIS common stock for each share of Metavante common stock that you own as of the effective date of the merger. No fractional shares of FIS common stock will be issued, so Metavante shareholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares.

Q: How do I convert my Metavante stock certificates to FIS?

A: If you hold Metavante stock certificates (including lost certificates), you will receive a letter of transmittal from FIS’ transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services, LLC, explaining how to exchange your Metavante stock certificates for shares of FIS common stock. Instead of issuing new stock certificates, the shares you receive will be held in book-entry form in a Direct Registration account maintained by Computershare Investor Services, LLC. Computershare will mail you a statement detailing your book-entry holdings in FIS soon after the closing date.

If you maintain your Metavante shares in book-entry form with the existing transfer agent, no action is required and you will receive a Computershare statement shortly after the merger. If you maintain your Metavante shares through a bank or broker, shares of FIS will appear on the statement that you receive from your broker. You do not need to take any action.

If you are within the U.S., Canada or Puerto Rico and you have questions specific to the acquisition, please call 800-546-5141. If you are outside the U.S., Canada and Puerto Rico and you have questions specific to the acquisition, please call 781-575-2765.

Q: What do I do with my existing FIS stock certificates?

A: FIS shareholders are not required to take any action with respect to their stock certificates.

Q: What is the ShareGift USA Charitable Donation Program?

Arrangements have been made to enable Metavante shareholders to donate to ShareGift USA some or all of the FIS common stock to be received by them upon consummation of the merger. ShareGift USA is a nonprofit charity recognized as exempt from tax by the Internal Revenue Service under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code that will distribute the merger consideration donated by Metavante shareholders (or the proceeds from the sale of any donated merger consideration) to a variety of recognized U.S. charities. ShareGift USA will aggregate all donations from Metavante shareholders and distribute them to charitable institutions. If you are a Metavante shareholder and a U.S. taxable investor, you may be eligible for a tax deduction should you choose to participate in ShareGift USA’s program. Please consult your tax advisor accordingly.

Q: Where are FIS shares traded?

A: FIS is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol “FIS”.

Q: What is the tax basis of FIS for Metavante shareholders?

A: Shareholders should contact their tax advisor regarding their tax basis.

Q: What is the tax basis for Metavante shareholders from the spin-off from Marshall & Ilsley?

A: Please click here to access a document that provides an example of allocating tax basis between Marshall & Ilsley common stock and Metavante common stock.

Q: Is there any tax on the receipt of FIS common stock?

A: For U.S. shareholders there will be no tax on the receipt of FIS common stock. However, no fractional shares of FIS common stock will be issued and Metavante shareholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares. The cash received for a fractional share will generally be taxable. Shareholders should contact their tax advisor regarding their tax liabilities.

Q: Can I buy or sell shares directly through FIS?

A: FIS currently does not have a Direct Stock Purchase Plan in place for investors. Share purchases would need to be conducted through a stock broker of your choice.

Shares held in book-entry form in a Direct Registration account maintained by the transfer agent, Computershare, can be sold via the web or phone. Please contact Computershare at 800-568-3476 for more information. Shares held in street name would need to be sold through a stock broker of your choice.

Q: Does FIS pay a dividend?

A: FIS currently pays a quarterly cash dividend of $0.05.

Q: Does FIS have a Dividend Reinvestment Plan?

A: FIS does not currently offer a Dividend Reinvestment Plan "DRIP".
